Biblical Oil blend Symbolism of Ingredients

Frankincense – this was one of the ingredients the Lord instructed Moses to include for the incense used for the alter of the tabernacle – symbolic for the prayers being lifted up to God (Exodus 30:34). It was also given to Jesus at His birth (Matthew 2:11).

Myrrh – this was one of the ingredients included in the blend used to anoint the priests (Exod 30:23). As a part of the priesthood of believer – Christians can walk in their authority in Christ to pray for others. Myrrh was also mentioned 8 times in Song of Songs as a means of expressing fragrant, intimate love. This was another gift given to Jesus at His birth (Matthew 2:11).

Spikenard – this is the oil that poured out of the alabaster jar and onto Jesus just days before He entered the most profound spiritual warfare in history – His crucifixion, then RESURRECTION (Mark 14:3).

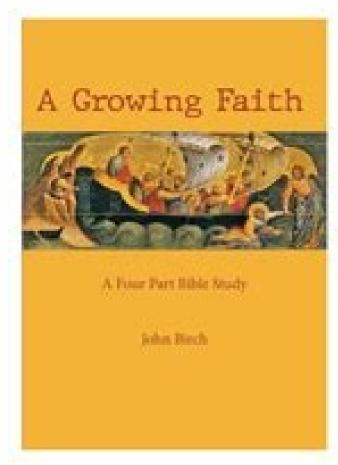

Cassia – King Solomon carried the fragrance of cassia on his robes (Psalm 45:8) and this was one of the ingredients in the blend to anoint

(Psalm 45:8) and this was one of the ingredients in the blend to anoint the priests (Exod 30:24). As Christians, we can carry the aroma of Christ in the physical and spiritual in accordance with 2 Cor 2:14, "through us diffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place."

Hyssop – Used as a part of the cleansing rituals (Lev 14). King David referred to hyssop symbolically after confessing to his adultery in Psaln 51:7 – "cleanse me with hyssop, that I may be clean. Wash me, and I will be white as snow." Exodus 12:22 – the evening before the Israelite secaped Egypt, they applied the blood of the lamb on the doorposts with the branch of hyssop – and the Angel of death passed over these with the branch of hyse homes.

Things seemed dark, but they were as bad as women and the remaining 11 disciples thought. Other times you know the subject or some keywords, but you have no idea what book you want. An online Bible concordance is the tool you need in these situations. For over 80 years, Christian Schools International has led the road with educational materials that give life to God's word. The courage is "The quality or the mental state or the spirit that allows one to face difficulties or disaster with confidence and resolution." We all want that, right? And then... it's too late. Here is the profoundly simple means God has provided for all men to satisfy that ache we have for a more supernatural life of faith. You¢ÃÂÂre just trying to hold it together. Jesus¢Ã prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane shows us what Jesus prayed when he was afraid. There¢ÃÂÂs more than enough evidence to get a conviction that the Bible is exactly what it claims to be: a flawless record of exactly what God wanted to say exactly the way He wanted to say it.
